4-H Competition	20

This manual contains a complete list of items that are judged annually at the Stanley Fair. Prizes are listed for all categories, along with rules and directions for preparing and submitting entries. An entry form can be found at the center of this book. If it is missing please contact the Stanley Fair and a new one can be provided.

This competition reflects a long time tradition of country fairs that provides an opportunity to display the talents and achievements of you, your family and your fellow community members.

*Our Fair is Your Fair.
Come join us!*

NOTES:

EXHIBITOR'S RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Entries will be accepted between 2pm and 9pm on Wednesday of fair week.
2. The entry fee is $5 per adult exhibitor and $1 per child.
3. All entries must be listed on the printed forms provided in the center of this manual. If form is missing or if additional forms are needed they can be picked up at the library, the local pharmacy, the Taymouth Community Center and at the Hillside Store. These forms must be filled in and signed by the exhibitor and must accompany entries.
4. The exhibitor must have personally produced the item(s) to be entered.
5. Every item must have a tag attached with the section, class and exhibitor's number clearly displayed. These tags are provided when entries are accepted.
6. No article may be entered in more than one section, and only one article will be accepted per class.
7. Judging will be completed by 6pm Thursday of fair week.
8. Exhibitors are not allowed to remove or adjust exhibits once they are placed in position, unless given permission by fair personnel.
9. Any exhibitor wishing to sell any article may attach a price tag.
- 10. All exhibits EXCEPT livestock must stay on the grounds until Monday unless removal is pre-authorized. Exhibits are to be picked up Monday between 2pm and 8pm.

Safety of Exhibits

Although the Agricultural Society will take all reasonable precautions to ensure the safety and security of articles exhibited, it must be understood that the owners/exhibitors will assume all risk. Should any item be stolen, damaged or lost the Agricultural Society will strive to recover the item. However, no payment will be made for its replacement.

Exhibitors of animals, machinery in motion or other exhibits that could cause injury or damage to persons coming in contact with them will guard their exhibit and protect the public from injury. The Society will not be responsible for any claims, demands, costs, charges and/or expenses resulting from such an occurrence.

Concessions and Sale Tables

Table or booth rental space is available for anyone interested. All charges or rental fees must be paid at the opening of the exhibition.

Only those authorized by the Agricultural Society may offer for sale any food, refreshments or merchandise at the Stanley Fair.

For prices and further information contact the Agricultural Society.

Although the North Tay 4-H Club hosts their Achievement Day during the fair, we are open for other clubs and projects to join.

Any livestock exhibited at the Stanley Fair in the 4-H Category other than by the North Tay 4-H Club must give the 4-H organizers notice by June 1st of the upcoming fair year. This is to ensure adequate pen or stall space.

1. Any club or member in good standing with 4-H NB will be allowed to display any items from their achieved project at the fair. Please contact Janelle Shaw at 367-2626 for further information.
2. Open Class A: Cookie Decorating Contest: Members must decorate a cookie using edible materials. Each entry must show a 4-H clover. All cookies must be on a plate and placed in a bag. All bags must be able to be opened. Prizes: 1st: $15, 2nd: $10, 3rd: $5
3. Open Class B: Mosaic Competition: Members must use any number of materials to make a mosaic of the 4-H Clover. You can use any materials but display can be no bigger than a Bristol board sheet size. Prizes: 1st: $15, 2nd: $10, 3rd: $5
